

Certificate

of Appreciation to

Yuva Rural Association

For its highly impactful, dual approach to development – working directly with the communities to bring about change, as well as advocating for the development of these communities through state and national networks. We commend Yuva Rural Association’s commitment to holistic community development through stellar work in education, health, livelihood, women empowerment, and sustainable agriculture.

We are proud to have Yuva Rural Association as a partner in our Livelihoods portfolio.
